

The Voice of God - Media Kit

Silvia Ledon is a bilingual educator, speaker, award-winning author, and singer-songwriter. Along with her husband, Juan, Silvia serves as a missionary in Richmond, Virginia, working with immigrant families.

With 40 years of ministry experience and over 30 years as an educator, Silvia brings depth, warmth, and vibrant storytelling to all she creates. She recently published The Voice of God, a poetic children's book available in both English and Spanish editions. It invites children and the adults who love them to notice and respond to God's voice in everyday life.

Whether rooted in faith or simply exploring spirituality outside traditional structures, Silvia's work speaks to a wide range of seekers and families. The book has earned honors from both The BookFest and the American Writing Awards (2024).
